CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE TO VIEW HARBOR SITES

Contract Let For Reclamation of 2000 Acres of Marsh Land at San Carlos and Belmont

Headed by Congressman S. Wal- Dempsey of New York, a delega- of five members of the Rivers Harbors Committee of the House Representatives will come to Red- City Monday to look over the ble developments of the harbor The delegation of congress- will be accompanied by members the Redwood City chamber of com- the members of San Francisco and land chamber of Commerce, members of the San Francisco Town Association.

At a meeting of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce held Thurs- evening at the city hall, closed plans were pledged by the mem- of that body for the transpor- of the visitors to various of interest in this section of county. After visiting harbor sites here the congressmen be taken to Oakland by a gov- ment tug and will view the de- pments on the eastern side of the Co-incident with the announce- nt of the visit of the congress- l committee came another an- ncement of great importance to future development of the local rbor facilities. This was con- ned in a news story sent out this k by the San Francisco Bay Ter- Co., a corporation which has ently secured a tract of 2000 es of marsh land just north of dsberger creek and extending to lmont slough.

The announcement made this week s of awarding of a contract of $5,- 00,000 for the dredging of canals hrough this property and the filling of the marsh to a depth of seven t. It is the plan of the company remove a hilly section of their operty near Belmont and with the ls to fill the remainedr of the perty. Work will be commenced pon this project immediately. The rk will be done under the super- vision of Charles H. Davies of this y, executive secretary of the Bay rminals Co.

Plans for the development of this ject call for the dredging of a chan- el deep enough to float the largest ips entering the bay and five hun- red feet wide. This canal will ex- end directly through the proverty, a distance of four and a half miles nd will contain two large turning asins. A canal of this description ill be able to accommodate the argest ships used. Besides the canal, he plans call for the erection of arge wharfs and piers 1100 feet ong and 250 feet wide, and the rection of large warehouses.

Arrangements have been made with the Southern Pacific Co. for the onstruction of tracks to serve the ock and with the Pacific Gas & lectric Co. for the supplying of lectric power. The Spring Valley Water Co., it is said, will run a arge main line to supply the tract.

When these developmeits are com- pleted the land will be sold for in- dustrial sites. Several choice sites have already been bargained for, ac- cording to the company, among them one by a concern which contemplates the construction of a $20,000,000 factory.

The work of filling and grading of this huge project will be in charge of Frank G. White, engineer of the State Harbor Board. The United Dredging Company will perform the dredging operations, and has already filed its contract bond.

The proposed work of development is attracting great attention in San Francisco as well as along the pen- insula. "The new development is so close to San Francisco, and bids fair to become such a vital part of the community, that the chamber of com- merce is heartily interested in it. It will spread our industrial section, and, of prime importance, will bring scores of manufacturers who have hitherto been barred for lack of such transportation facilities the new proje t offers," said a prominent San Francisco business man this week.

The vice-president of the company is F. D. Cornell of Sunnyvale, presi- dent of the Hermosa-Redondo Water Company. Other members of the corporation are John F. Craig, Long Beach, president of the Craig shipbuilding corporation; Dr. C. G. Farrow, Glendale, president of the American Agar Company; S. M. Haz- lett, San Francisco, president of the Hazlett Warehouse Corporation; Claude Cummins, Oakland, vice presi- dent of the United Dredging Com- pany. Oliver S. Clark of Los Angeles is chief counsel and Charles W. Davies of Redwood City is executive secretary.

E. B. De Golia, owner of the Hunt- ington Apartments of San Francisco, and president of the terminal com- pany, declared this week that no stock will be placed on the market. All original finances, he said, have been supplied by members of the company and their friends. Four bond issues of $1,000,000 each will be floated to finance the develop- ment.

Importance of the new port to San Francisco was pointed out this week by H. Clay Miller, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

These improvements, combined with the new Bay Shore highway, El Camino Real, the Dumbarton bridge and unlimited trackage, it was pointed out by industrial lead- ers, will provide the new "port" with the finest transportation facilities on this coast.

Interest in the many other develo- pment projects in this county is also being manifested by San Fran- cisco business organizations. A sur- vey, planned primarily to advance the construction of the Bay Shore Highway was made this week by a group of the members of the San Francisco Down Town Association. Enroute the caravan of business men inspected several developments in this county.

These projects, which will directly benefit San Francisco included:

1. The first unit of the Bay Shore highway, in course of construction. San Francisco has appropriated $500,000 for this unit. San Mateo has given assurance that it will under- take the mile of the highway that will carry it from the end of San Francisco's section into the town. The estimated cost of building this completing link is $100,000.

2. The Hetch-Hetchy pipe line at Dumbarton, opened two weeks ago, through which 9,000,000 gallons of water is flowing daily from Cala- veras Dam in Alameda county to Crystal Springs Reservoir near San Mateo. H. M. Owens, assistant city engineer of San Francisco, told the committee that 24,000,000 gallons a day will soon be brought through the line to the reservoir.

3. The partly built toll bridge, which will cross the bay at Dumbar- ton.

T. P. Anderson, chairman of the Down Town Association's committee on highways, headed the caravan of automobiles which conveyed the inspection committee.

The first stop in the tour was at the start of the city's unit of the Bay Shore highway in South San Francisco.

"Gentlemen, the purpose of this tour is to let a certain man in Sacra- mento know that the Down Town Association is 'on the job' and is ac- tively interested in these projects," Andrews told the committee. "We want to see this highway pushed through to a finish. That's why we're here to show that we mean business and are giving it our per- sonal attention."

The inspection tour was complet- ed at Dumbarton. There H. M. Owens, assistant city engineer, ex- plained the Hetch Hetchy pipe line and the Dumbarton bridge under taking was detailed by John G. Sutton, president of the Dumbarton Bridge Corporation.

Pair Jailed After Burlingame Crash

Two prisoners, Albert Herricks and Alvin Mars of San Francisco, were brought to jail here Wednesday night are being held in connection with the robbery of a grocery store at Millbrae. The pair was arrested at Burlingame, after a mad chase down the highway, and a wreck in which both escaped uninjured.

The hold-up was committed just as Mrs. J. H. Detrick was closing her grocery store for the night. The two men approached her, and at the point of a gun demanded that she open the safe and the cash register. They secured $90 in currency and left in a car. The woman immediately phoned Chief of Police Harper of Burlingame to be on the look out for them.

Police officer Jack Theuer of Bur- lingame found the two bandits just as they were crawling from the wreck of their car, which had crash- ed into a car parked beside the highway with disastrous results to both cars.

Sheriff McGovern and officers from Burlingame went to the ad- dress in San Francisco which the bandit suspects had given as their home address. Here they found a quantity of merchandse which they believe to be stolen goods. Detectives in San Francisco are trying to dis- cover where the merchandise was obtained.

The first step was taken this week at a meeting of the American Legion in this city, when an invitation was sent to all veteran organizations in the county to send two delegates to a meeting, the date of which has not yet been set. The organization will be similar to the United Veterans' Council now functioning in San Fran- cisco and Los Angeles.

MAN KILLED IN LA HONDA GRADE AUTO ACCIDENT

While returning from San Fran- cisco Thursday evening by way of San Gregorio, John Francis O'Brien of La Honda lost control of his car and plunged over a fifty-foot bank int the La Honda canyon. O'Brien was crushed beneath the car and was submerged in the water of the creek. He was discovered yester- day morning by a passing motorist who notified deputy coroner John Layng.

O'Brien was a brother of Mrs. Alex Bonzagni and since the death of her husband, has been manag- ing Bonzagni's Tavern, well known La Honda resort . Besides Mrs. Bon- zagni, the deceased is survived by six brothers and a sister, Thomas, William, Joseph, Columbus, Aloy- sius and Edward O'Brien and Mrs. Nora Merkle.

The deceased was a native of San Francisco and served with the United States forces in France during the late war.

An inquest was held upon the body of the deceased at the parlors of Layng & Tinney yesterday. New Gangster Trial Denied

There will be no new trials grant- ed to the five men convicted of rape in the court here last week. This was decisively stated by Judge Geo. H. Buck in denying the motions of the attorneys representing the con- victed men. The five were Albert Craib, George Piexotto, Joe Ghio, Charles Piero and Angelo Chiaparo. Craib was also convicted of robbery. Motions for a new trial of the men were made by their attorneys, who claimed that new evidence had been found which would reverse the deci- sions of the juries which had convict- ed the men.

Affidavits were filed last week by the attorneys for the defense. These affidavits were from Mr. and Mrs. James Looney from whose house Mrs. Skellenger, who preferred the charges of rape, went just be- fore she was taken by her boys and conveyed to Brighton beach, where it is said the attack was made. Af- fidavits by James Cochrane and Her- man Rist were also filed. All of these affidavits state that Mrs. Skellenger had been drinking. Other affidavits were also filed among them being one from Arthur Hilton, a member of the Daly City police force. Hilton testifies that the clothing worn by Mrs. Skellenger was not in disorder when she ap- proached him after the alleged at- tack.

Answers to these affidavits were filed last week by District Attorney Franklin Swart, who is condcting the prosecution.

Following the denial of a new trial the attorneys for the defense announced their intention of appeal- ing the case to the Supreme court.

Big Carnival At Sequoia This P. M.

This evening will be a memorable one for the Sequoia Union High School, for from 4 o'clock this after- noon until midnight the school grounds will be the scene of one of the biggest carnivals ever staged by the local school. The students and teachers of the school have been busy for weeks on plans and preparations for the events of today, and it is ex- pected that the affair will be a grand success.

A number of original and unique booths have been made ready. These include such tempting names as "Bluebeard's Closet.", "The African Hut", "Mother Goose Show" and others too numerous to mention.

At 10:30 a dance with fine music will begin in the gymnasium. A spec- ial feature of the evening will be a number of selections by the high school orchestra, under the direction of Professor Heineman.

The grounds have been extensively decorated for the occasion and some unusual lighting effects have been secured. Among them is a quarter million candle power search light which will be used to light the grounds.

The carnival will be proceeded by a football game on the local turf with the team from the Galileo high school in San Francisco.

Air Field Sale Is Reported

It would appear that Redwood City is in for a big boom very soon. It is well known that the Portland Cement Co. here is going to make additions to its plant, costing the vast sum of $1,000,000. This big ex- penditure of money in this locality is certain to create a stir. The mammoth developments at San Car- los and Belmont will help this place. The proposed industrial sites on the marsh lands are sure to bring much trade to Redwood City. Yesterday it was rumored that the aviation field near town was bought by rep- resentatives of Henry Ford, who is to establish a large assembling plant there. It was also said that 5000 men would be employed permanent- ly. With these big industries in the offing, Redwood City is to be come the large industrial city of the pen- insula.

$2,500,000 SALE OF LA HONDA OIL PROPERTY CLOSED

All records for oil deals in this section of the state were broken this week when the La Honda Oil Fields Association closed a deal for their property, consisting of about 1800 acres of land in the La Honda dis- trict, upon which three wells have been drilling and a refinery and ser- vice station ouilt. The price report- ed is $2,500,000, with an initial payment of $250,000 and the bal- ance in cash and oil spread over a term of years.

The purchasers who represent a large independent oil and refining company, plan to drill seven addi- tional wells as soon as material can be delivered for the same. This will add a great deal of activity to this field and the new company will doubtless bring a good many of their old men who have been with them for years to add speed to their de- velopment program.

The McClintock Well Goes on Production

A production test has been made at the McClintock well, which is now delivering 45 barrels per day. Mc- Clintock and his associates will no doubt commence another well in the near future, as this is considered satisfactory production in this terri- tory. This well flows about half of its production by natural flow.

Rolla Ellis No. 1 Well

This well was drilled into the top sand last Sunday and a good small commercial producing well was com- pleted. Forty-six feet of oil sand was encountered in this well.

A good number of people from this vicinity were on the ground to see the well brought in and to sample the oil as it was brought from the well.

After making a test of this sand, it was decided to deepen this well to the next sand, which should be reached in the next hundred feet, where a much greater quantity of oil and gas should be had. This is a rule in all California fields and the present development in the La Hon- da field has proven to be no excep- tion to the rule.

Morse and Company

Morse and company have their men on the ground excavating for a derrick and carpenters are now busy getting their camp built. Drilling will commence here within the next few days.

Way Cleared for Transbay Bridge

The last link in the right of way for the Dumbarton bridge was ob- tained this week by a decision of the Superior court of Alameda coun- ty. The decision which was handed down by Judge H. D. Boroughs of Lassen county, sitting in the Ala- meda court, grants a right of way through the lands of the Newark Realty and Development Co. in re- turn for $16,500 to be paid by the bridge company.

Suit was filed by the bridge com- pany for a right of way under the right of eminent domain. The com- pany whose land would be tra- versed by the road to the bridge de- manded $1,250,000 for a right of way, claiming that their land would be damaged to that extent by the proposed road. The court maintain- ed that $16,500 was a fair price for the land and that the company would benefit from the work being done by the bridge concern.

Work is being rushed on the con- struction of the bridge, and the great super-structure which was built in an Oakland ship yard is being put into place on the immense concrete piers as rapidly as possible. The bridge will be completed early next year, according to reports.

Work Started On Business Building

Building operations were started this week on a new store building on Broadway. The new building is be- ing built by the Misses Cummings on property recently purchased by them on the corner of Broadway and the highway, directly across from the entrance to the high school grounds.

The building will be built of brick and will contain several large stores. The contract was let for the construc- tion to L. N. Pollard of this city. The cost of the building is said to be $13,070. One of the stores is said to have been leased already for an automobile sales room.

SEQUOIA TEAMS PLAY LICK

Two fast games occured last night on the indoor basket-ball court of the Sequoia Union High School, when the 110 and 120-pound team of Se- quoia met the corresponding teams of the Lick school in San Francisco. The local teams were in good shape and were confident of defeating the visitors. The games were not finish- ed in time, however, for the score to be published.

Sequoia secured a victory on the turf this week when the second team of Sequoia defeated that of Palo Alto by a score of 13 to 0. The opponents showed very little team work and were easily defeated by the local boys. Every member of the squad was given a chance to play in the game during the contest by Coach Kelley

SALE OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH PROPERTY IS REPORTED

Old Building, Scene of Many Social Events in Early Days of Redwood City to be Removed

The sale was reported this week of an important piece of property on the corner of Washington and Web- ster streets for many years occupied by St. Peter's Episcopal church. The property was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin S. Grandi of Wellesley Park, who are reported to have paid $15,000 for the land, which was sold by Whitcomb and Smith, local real- tors. The Episcopalians have ar- ranged to use the church until their parish house in the Highlands is completed. This will be before the first of the year.

The church edifice is one of the land marks of Redwood City, and after the first of the year, will be torn down or removed to some re- mote part of town. Around it clus- ter many memories of by-gone days. But few of those who helped build it and raised funds to pay for the lumber are here to witness its re- moval, the greater number having long since passed on to the world beyond. In years agone its spac- ious auditorium was the scene of many impressive ceremonies wit- nessed by the prominent church peo- ple of the county. In the Sixties the Feltons, W. J. Adams, the Selbys and Senator Milton S. Latham and other notables of Menlo Park came to wor- ship there.

Latham would drive up to the church door in a tandem, with coachman in livery and a footman. Ansel Easton came from Millbrae. These wealthy personages became members of the church some time after it had been erected.

It was a great struggle to build the edifice, the few parishioners giving many socials, parties and other affairs to raise funds for that purpose. In July 1866 a strawberry festival was given in a local hall by the good la- dies of the church who had for months advertised the big event which was looked forward to by the townspepole with the greatest anticipation. The net proceeds of the festival was the enormous sum of $75. This was considered large in those days. A fair took place on July 29, 1865 which was more successful for the sum of $500 was realized. With this sum the upper room in th old courthouse was fur- nished, an organ bought, and with the balance, the present site of St. Peter's church was purchased from A. V. Diller on April 23, 1865.

Other socials followed until suffic- ient sum was raised to buy the lumber. The site of the church was then known as Diller's Island.

Prior to this the Episcopalians held services at the old courthouse. The late Rev. A. L. Brewer was the pastor of the parish. He was also pastor at San Mateo, conducting services every Sunday in both churches. He is the father of Rev. W. A. Brewer, now pastor of St. Matthew's at Burlingame. The el- der Brewer afterwards established the Brewer Academy at San Mateo.

The lumber for the new church having been purchased, most of the work was done by volunteer car- penters. Among the volunteers were James Crowe, John Shelley and Charles Benjamin.

The corner stone of the new edi- fice was laid on Saturday, May 4, 1867 with appropriate ceremony. It was a big day among the church peo- ple of Redwood City. Hundreds at- tended the affair. Bishop William Ingram Kip, assisted by Rev. A. L. Brewer, Rev. George Burton and Rev. Peak of San Jose, performed the ceremony. The bishop delivered the eloquent address on the occasion. A tin box was placed in the stone, con- taining the following memorandum, an almanac of that year, two copies of the Gazette of the dates of April 27 and May 4, 1867, a copy of the Alta California, containing the pro- ceedings of the State diocese held in San Francisco on May first of that year, postage stamps, internal rev- enue stamps and several pieces of coin of different denominations. No doubt when the old building is re- moved this tin box will be taken up and placed in the corner stone of the new church. It will be like the resur- rection of the body of some dear friend that has been slumbering in the grave for years and suddenly came to life, after a peaceful sleep of fifty-eight years. The contents of the tin box no doubt, will be found in good state of preservation. Perhaps it will be opened and the old pioneers permitted to peer into it.

The consecration of the new struc- ture took place on Sunday, June 30, 1867. There was a large assemblage present to witness the impressive ceremony. Bishop Kip was in at- tendance and performed the dedi- catory ceremonies. He was assisted by Rev. Brewer, then a young man, right out from Detroit, Michigan, where he took his degree in the Uni- versity of Michigan. Rev. George Burton and other clergymen from San Francisco. The little church was crowded to the doors. The vestrymen, elected a few weeks before, for the year, occupied front seats near the sactuary. They were B. G. Lathrop, John Shelly, J. W. Turner, T. W. La- throp, Jesse Jewell, A. S. Easton, B. F. Cooper, A. T. Warren. John Shelley was senior warden, and J. Jewell, junior warden. The La- throps held the positions in the county shortly afterwards as sher- iff and county clerk. Easton was the county surveyor.

B. F. Cooper read the financial statement of the parish showing that it was in a flourishing condi- tion and had a membership of twenty-seven faithful workers.

Shortly after the dedication Rev. George Burton became the pastor and a little later Rev. Giles A. Easton be- came the pastor. He was a brother of A. S. Easton, the county surveyor. The brothers were relatives of the wealthy Eastons of Burlingame, af- ter whom the Town of Easton was named. Many eminent divines oc- cupied the pulpit in St. Peter's from that time until the present.

St. Peter's at that time was a part of San Mateo parish and on October 29, 1867, the parishes were separ- ated. Rev. Brewer resigning the pas- torate here, the Rev. Burton taking his place.

The first baptism took place in the new church was on August 25, 1867, the children being baptized were Carrie and Eugene Maxwell of Redwood City.

Rev. Albert E. Clay, the present rector, came here seven months ago from Philadelphia, where he was for fourteen years the pastor of the Church of the Redemption, one of prominent parishes in that city. He will be the last pastor of St. Peter's at its present site.

Police Arrest 12 For Burglary

Acting on clues which he has been gathering for some time, Chief of Police C. L. Collins and Officers, Stanley Woods and Edward McAuliffe of the Redwood City police depart- ment, on Wednesday afternoon raid- ed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Quintaras, near Five Points. The officers, with a search warrant, ob- tained in the office of Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin, searched the house and discovered loot valued at $5000, which has been identified as having been stolen from stores and homes of Redwood City during the past year.

Among the collection were found articles stolen last week from Ryans drug store; goods from Henry Lamb's store several months ago; a fur coat belonging to Mrs. Sylvester Douglas which was stolen from a car several months ago; and articles taken from the Jessup and Doppee homes.

In addition to the arrest of the Quintaras, the officers took into custody ten other men who are thought to have been connected with the burglaries, which have been oc- curing lately. These are being held in a charge of vagrancy until their record can be traced. The ten ar- rested are Miguel Mindez, Rosario Guerro, Luiz Sierrez, Antonio Ortega, Gilardo Murrieta, Jose Espenosa, P. Herrarra, Feliz Bargas, Miguel Go- linalo and Leo Lopez.

The Chamber of Commerce

THE last few weeks have been important in the development of this district, and the next few will probably see even greater improvements. One project after another has been proposed and started on its way to completion and within a short time many developments now under way will arrive at maturity.

Behind nearly every effort at development made lately has been the Chamber of Commerce. Under the intelligent leadership of its officers, the local organization has been able to accomplish great good for the community. It is now engaged in several projects which deserve the support of every citizen.

The Chamber of Commerce has taken an active part in securing a great development in the Redwood barbor and has this work so far advanced now that it is in the hands of the War Department rather than of the organization which originally fathered the movement. It is now working on a plan to have Broadway opened through, past Main street.

This latter development is one which has been discussed for many years, one that has been recognized as necessary to the proper development of the town, but so far the only organized effort has been made by the Chamber of Commerce. That body has now arranged matters so that the proposition may be put before the people in a concrete form. What the people will do remains to be seen.

No improvement will result in more good to the business section of Redwood City and to the eastern section of town than the opening of Broadway. Development in that section of the town which now lays behind the barrier of Main street, has been held back. In fact there has been less growth in this section than in any other part of town, chiefly because of the unavailibility of the business district from this part of town.

When the Bay Shore Highway is completed Broadway should serve as the connecting link between this and the present highway. If continued to Chestnut street this will be possible, but with the present barrier remaining, Redwood City will be a town divided, and the benefit to this section of the new highway will be nullified. Every citizen who desires to see a great development for the town will give the Chamber of Commerce every support in its work for a better Redwood City.

Help the Firemen

A few weeks ago while speaking before a group of the business men of Redwood City, State Fire Marshall Jay Stevens ,stated that in his whole territory including the whole western coast, only one other town had as good a volunteer fire department as Redwood City. This other town was in Oregon . This is saying a lot for Redwood City's firemen and for their chief, Mark Ryan, who is now attending a convention of fire chiefs at Louisville, Ky.

On occasion after occasion the fire department has demonstrated its worth to the town. Only last Thursda yit succeeded after a two-hour battle in quenching a fire which might otherwise have swept the entire business district.

All the work of the department is voluntary and only the driver of the truck receives a salary. The other members of the department risk their lives and ruin their clothing for the good of the community, and are deserving of the whole gratitude of the community. In a short time the firemen will be around with tickets for their dance on the 24th of this month. This is the only occasion when the department goes before the people for money. Buying a ticket helps a good cause. Help the firemen protect you.

The Fall

HERE in California where every season of the year has so much loveliness to endear it to the heart, it is sometimes hard to say that this or that season surpasses any other season for joys, beauties or pleasures. Humanity is not so far removed from the hibernates, however, that the fall does not possess a charm particularly its own. With the coming of the fall and the first heavy, cloudy days of autumn, when the leaves are softly drifting down through the half-bare branches of the oaks, a feeling of rest and peace comes to humanity which has been the subject of myths and folk tales from time immemorial. Of this the mass of legendary lore gathered around the autumnal equinox bears eloquent testimony.

So we, in our humble way, are glad to welcome the fall once more, to watch the dark clouds driven before the soft warm winds of the south, come piling over the hills, laden with rain for next year's springs and to see as we walk homeward in the evening the yellow and brown leaves caught in little circling eddies in the fence corners.

This is fall, a season of peace, a preparation of that great peace which should flood the world when the sun once more turns in its orbit and at Christmas begins its assent into the skies.

Hearse Seized in Booze Raid

The federal prohibition officers have come to expect to find booze almost everywhere. A new means of transporting the liquor was shown them this week, however. A large black hearse which had been making trips along the coast side of the county too frequently for the healthy conditions of the inhabitants of that salubrious district, became suspected, and it was found that from transporting bodies the hearse had gone to transporting spirits.

The hearse was seized and also a speed boat used in landing liquor. Two men were taken into custody and a large quantity of illicit liquor was seized.

The raid was made early Tuesday morning by officers under Col. Ned M. Green, federal prohibition director for this district. The federal officers had been on the look out at Halfmoon Bay, Montara, Point San Pedro and other points along the highway.

IMPROVED FORD CARS ATTRACTING MANY

As people become more familiar with the attractiveness of the improved Ford cars interest not only increases, but orders for cars are growing in numbers, according to local Ford dealers.

Probably the best evidence of the widespread interest manifest in cars comes from the general offices of the Ford Motor Company at Detroit, where it was stated that since the improved cars were announced orders for more than 192,368 have been booked by dealers throughout the United States. Thousands of orders are coming in every day.

This is not only a striking example of public confidence in the company's product but is also a sales record without precedent.

Added significance is given the sales report by the fact that the public generally has not yet had an opportunity to inspect all of the improved types. Distribution of cars among dealers so far has been limited principally to touring cars. In fact, dealers in many sections are still awaiting their first car. In spite of this, orders continue to come in from all points not only for cars of the type shown, but the rest of the open and closed line as well, an indication that prospective purchasers are impressed with the soundness of the redesigning and refining of the cars and are satisfied that they will find the same standard reflected in the type of their preference.

Those desiring an improved Ford car for use during the coming fall and winter will do well to enter their orders early and avoid the delay in delivery.

STAFFORD & LONG EMPLOYEES PICNIC

Stafford & Long, the local grocers, on Sunday last gave a picnic at La Honda to their employees. Long tables were arranged under the branches of wide-spreading trees for which that locality is noted and on the tables were piled all the good things of the season that tempted the guests so that when the shades of evening began to fall there was nothing left of the bountiful supply.

Games were played, dancing indulged in and pranks played to the delight of all. Dull care was thrown to the winds and all were boys and girls again. Bacon, sugar, flour, etc. were forgotten, mirth and gayety prevailed until the sun began to sink behind the western horizon when the baskets were gathered and stored in the automobiles and the start for home was made. The trip home was delightful, made so by the joyous laughter and singing of the merry makers. Such occasions as these serve to bring the employer and employees nearer. There should be more of these affairs.

BUILDING AND LOAN MATURES ANOTHER STOCK SERIES

The San Mateo County Building & Loan Association will mature Series 86 of its stock on October 30, this series then having reached a value of $200 a share.

The owners of this stock will have the option at that time of either withdrawing the proceeds in cash or of reinvesting the money with the association in Certificates of investment which will draw interest at the rate of 6 per cent. from the date of investment until the date of withdrawal.

The Association offers two forms of investment:

1. Certificates of investment. These certificates run from $100 upwards, and draw interest at the rate of 6 per cent from the day of purchase until the day of withdrawal. Interest on these certificates is paid May 30, and November 30 of each year.

2. The Installment Certificate: This is the monthly payment plan. The money is paid in at the rate of $1.00 per share per month and draws interest at more than 6 per cent, compounded semi annally. These two forms of investment meet the requirements of the large investor as well as taking care of the man or woman who wants to put away some of his earnings every month.

Beginning October 1st, the Association will receive subscriptions to both these forms of investment, at least an amount, to replace series 86 which matures on October 30th.

Since its organization in 1890, this Association has paid in cash to its stockholders $1,250,000, as well as assisting hundreds of families in this county to own their own homes.

All the active funds of the association are lent out on real estate first mortgages, principally for home building.

The present Board of Directors are with one exception the same men that were active in the affairs of the association at the beginning of its career, thirty-five years ago. They are all men known in the community for their sound, conservative business judgment.

KIWANIANS HEAR ADVERTISING TALK

Advertising was the subject of an address delivered before the local Kiwanis club last Tuesday by Walter P. Burn of the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. Burn pointed out the advantages of newspaper advertising over other forms employed, and showed the advantage of good advertising to the merchant.

The meeting Tuesday was under the chairmanship of Dr. John Blood. President James D. Hedge appointed Roy W. Cloud, Clarence Argo and Rev. C. E. Kennedy as a committee to arrange for a competition in the writing of essays in the high school, the grammar school and in the convent. These essays are to be on fire prevention and are suggested by the local fire department to create interest in Fire Prevention Week. The winner of the contest in each school will be awarded a prize. The Kiwanis club is assisting the fire department in this and will supply one of the prizes.

E. B. Hinman, president of the local chamber of commerce, announced at this meeting that the committee of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress would be in town Monday. The news was received with great applause by the members.

FIREMEN REMEMBERED

Following the fire last Thursday night, which nearly destroyed the Wahl building, G. A. Thiel sent a check of $100 to the fire department in appreciation of the work done by the firemen in saving his building wich adjoins the Wahl building. Thiel's building at one time was on fire, but the flames were quenched before any serious damage was done.

Cleaning Without Odor by the
F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded bp our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening gasoline smell in your clothes.

WOMAN KILLED IN SAN CARLOS CRASH

When the car which she was driving Skidded and turned over Mrs. A. Erhart of San Francisco received injuries from which she died shortly after. The accident occured Thursday morning at San Carlos, when Mrs. Erhart, who was driving at a rapid rate, turned out to avoid hitting another machine and in endeavoring to regain the highway, turned the car over.

With Mrs. Erhart in the car were Harry Barintos, a Filipino, of 1347 Seventh avenue, San Francisco, and a daughter of Mrs. Erhart. Neither were seriously injured. The car, which is said to belong to Barintos, was demolished. The party was enroeut to Monterey when the fatal accident occured.

EAST PALO ALTO

A mass meeting of all the people east of Cooley avenue and therefore outside of the Menlo Fire district was called by Lenn Follett, president of the East Palo Alto Progressive Club and A. Harran, chairman of the club fire committee to make arrangements for fire protection for that territory last Thursday evening. It was voted to ask each property owner to pay 23 cents per hundred dollars valuation, the same as if he were in the fire district, this sum to be collected and used by a committee of five for fire protection and if at the end of the year any of this sum were in the treasury it should be turned over to the Menlo Park Fire Commissioners as a gift.

Both Menlo Park department and Menlo No. 41 and sometimes also Palo Alto respond to the fires and while it has been appreciated, there has been no substantial return for this kindness. This fund, it is expected, will be given willingly to meet the needs of fire protection as far as it will go. The committee named to represent the territory were S. W. Hull, Roy McClain, A. E. Gravestock, Warren Huffman and F. C. Nickerson.

A fire of unknown origin destroyed a large poultry house 20x40 and 24 small houses of the Weeks system on the S. L. Neff property on Cooley avenue Monday afternoon afternoon about 1 o'clock. A weed fire across the street may have thrown sparks, it is thought. The Menlo No. 41 chemical responded immediately and saved the building adjoining but the blaze had gained such headway it was unable to check the fire. Neighborhood fire hose was brought by J. M. Hughes and demonstrated the value of a good stream of water, as the fire was being controlled when the Menlo department arrived, and they completed the work. This is the first fire in the community where the pump was equipped to pump directly from the well to the fire and it was the means of saving the balance of the buildings with the help of everyone.

Next Wednesday is the regular meeting of the Runnymede Woman's Club. The business session will be followed by a program on "American" with Mrs. Lucy Drysdale and Mrs. E. R. Lam as leaders. A social hour will follow the program

A large brooder house is being built on the A. R. Gurr place; a poultry house by Wheat and Payne, and improvements are being made by Mr. Airey on the properties recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Lammiman.

Committees are at work on the various booths being planned for the Runnymede Woman's Club Carnival at Sequoia High School, October 31st, and rehearsals are being held for the minstrel entertainment to be given in connection with it by the Francisquito players of the community on the evening of Oct. 30th.

Next Teusday evening will be the regular meeting of the Dumbarton Grange in the school auditorium.

Harry Olsen of Gypsum, Colorado, a nephew of M. P. Oleson, arrived Tuesday evening to commence his second year's work at Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hull motored to Modesto Sunday. The former returned Monday while Mrs. Hull remained to pass the week with her sister, Mrs. Ray Leeper and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hutchings, the latter a niece of W. J. Molseed, were down from Oakland for the week end at the Molseed home and Mrs. L. J. Moore of Oakland is also a guest and will accompany them to Petaluma, where they are moving this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Conley and two sons, James and Paul of Middleton, Ohio, were arrivals the past week at the Clifford Hawkins home. They visited here about a year ago, and have returned to stay, making the trip west by automobile.

Mrs. J. B. Maynard and Mrs. John Lammiman were both able to return home from the hospital Sunday and are abe to see their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lammiman have moved from the Bay Road to the Da Mant place on Runnymede street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garcia have purchased the Stevens place on Manhattan street, near Donahoe and plan to drill a well.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dezso and son, Karl, motored to Sunol for the day Sunday.

TRUSTEES SESSION

The San Carlos Trustees held their regular meeting on Monday evening, at which meeting the contract for the new sewer system, was awarded to H. Connor, he being the lowest bidder for the sum of $24,122. Work will be started as soon as the necessary papers are drawn up.

N. E. Davis, realty dealer, presented to the Board a petition for certain street work to be done on the westerly portion of Laurel street from Cypress avenue to Olive street. Also the unpaved portion of Cherry street from Walnut street to the State highway. After lengthy comment on this matter it was suggested to have City Engineer George Kneese furnish the city attorney data as to the various kinds of pavement and the price per lineal foot. This matter will be further discussed at the next meeting.

Albert A. Brannigan, San Francisco attorney and attorney for the Koff Realty Company, argued the point of the zoning ordinance. He stated he had come before the board not to protest, but to render a few suggestions as to the zoning law just passed by the board. He said that taking away 9 feet of a piece of property, especially off of a 40-foot lot, made it a hardship on the property owner. The majority of the lots at the Koff tract are all 40 feet. He felt that the ordinance was too drastic and that the offset line of 2 feet instead of 4 1-2 feet would be more satisfactory. After lengthy consideration and argument it was suggested to decide on the best plan that will be suitable for a 40-foot lot.

W. H. McClernonn presented his map for a 5-room bungalow to be built in the Koff property.

Permit was granted to L. C. Clements to connect to sewer temporarily. Clements constructed 3 bungalows on Cedar street.

A permit was granted to Fred Drake to pave Hawthorne and Prospect streets.

Building Inspector John V. Clark reported that the building now being constructed by A. J. Merta of the San Carlos Meat Market is within the building laws.

FIREMEN MEET

The advisory board of the Associated Firemen of San Mateo county met at the San Carlos firehouse to discuss various conditions relating to fire hazards and fire protection this week. Refreshments were served the visiting firemen by Chief Wheeler, E. R. Burton, B. A. Lindberg and Harry Gee.

Mrs. B. A. Lindberg has opened a hemstitching store in the Davis building on the highway. She will also do all kinds of ladies and children's sewing.

The Freshie reception was attended by Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Fairfield, Mrs. L. P. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Drake, Vallie Drake, Lois Odgers, Elsie Gee, Ellen Odgers, Erna Richter, Margaret Richter and many others.

Frank Quinn, state inspector of the State Motor Vehicle department, accompanied by his wife and young son, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lindberg. Quinn is now stationed at Sacramento

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Wong Chuck Wong, a local Chinese boy, arrived at the age of maturity during the week and at once registered and is now a full fledged American citizen. Chuck was born in Vacaville. He is a graduate of the grammar school and for a period of three years attended the high school at Redwood City.

Dr. W. H. Yale returned from Florida last week, where he went to live and invest in realty. After a short sojourn he returned to his beloved California satisfied there is no place like this on earth. The doctor was at Palm Beach, Miami, and in all cities on the east coast of the state. He says the climate is wretched; it is extremely hot; the air is murky and the humidity is almost unbearable and the mosquitoes are so numerous and so large that many of the inhabitants have to wear wire netting to protect themselves from the pesky creatures. Almost every man in Miami is a real estate agent. A corner lot there is valued at more than double a lot on Market street, San Francisco. New comers rush in with their Fords and are soon begging some gasoline to get back to the old home town. The streets are dusty and dirty and the sanitation is poor. The doctor advises all to keep away from Florida. The state is no rival of California and never can be for its climate is not to be compared with that of the Golden State. All mechanics are receiving big pay and only work a half day on account of the heat and numidity. The boom bubble will soon be broken and then all eyes will be turned to California that has always stood the test and has not been found wanting.

George J. Hatfield, who was recently appointed U. S. District Attorney for the northern part of California through the influence of Senator Samuel M. Shortridge, is well known here, where he spent a portion of his boyhood. In the early days his father was the agent for the Robert Johnston properties here and in those days was known to everyone. The son was educated at Oakland and at Stanford University. After his graduation he practiced law at Palo Alto for a short time, going from there to San Francisco. During the last presidential election, Hatfield organized the American Legion on behalf of President Coolidge, rendering yoemanry service for the republican cause. Mr. Hatfield is a capable young man, clever, and a lawyer of ability. He is made of the stuff from which good district attorneys are fashioned.

Mrs. Pearl Ragan, the local dancing teacher, should be proud of the performance of her pupils at an entertainment in Duff and Doyle hall last Saturday. The hall was crowded to the doors with parents and others eager to see the little tots perform. They danced like professionals, showing the wonderful training they had by their talented teacher. The ballet dancing, interpretations, peacock trot, and jazz were wonderful performances for children so young. By a strange freak of nature the acacia trees in this community are reblooming, having first sent their odoriferous blossoms last February, the usual season. Local horticulturalists cannot account for this peculiar twist of nature, for the climate has not been any different this year. Perhaps Luther Burbank, the Santa Rosa Wizard, could tell us.

Odd Way to Bring Rain

Rain-making is supposedly achieved by novel methods by peasants in the Punjab. An investigator into customs and methods visited a village where it had not rained for a long time. The anxious women of the village gathered around the officer's tent and requested to be allowed to souse him with water, as they believed that the performance of such a rite would bring down rain at once. The official refused to be drenched, for two days, but he gave way on the third. Twenty pots of water were poured on the unwilling head of the official outside his tent, and after 24 hours the rain came.

He was taken back to England in July, 1923, and died at the Cobham stud, Surrey, four months later.

Several more of our athletes, though slower to start than Tom, will be heard from later on.

True Love

In speaking of the proposed revision of California's marriage laws and the community property bill, Governor Richardson remarked:

"In the old days, subjects like this did not exist. Those were the days of romance and these are the days of finance. In the old days, sweet sayings and sweetmeats used to count, but nowadays it's different.

"'Are you sure he loves you?' Evelyn asked her friend.

"'Of course I'm sure! Why, my dear, every time we're out in a taxicab he keeps his eyes on me all the time—never looks at the meter once.'"

"SLAVE OF FASHION" IS ABSORGING STORY OF LIFE

"A Slave of Fashion" which plays at the Sequoia Theatre next Wdenesday and Thursday presents a human story exceedingly well told and beautifully produced. Is is entertaining from start to finish and is keyed at a tempo that holds your interest all through. It is a Hobart Henley production released and sponsored by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Samuel Shipman wrote the story originally for the screen. He shows the same fine skill in mapping out screen plays that he does in his spoken drama.

The story is that of a very beautiful and unsophisticated girl who has lived in a middle western village all of her life, but has longed to go to the city primarily to be able to see and wear—clothes. She gets her wish but almost at the cost of her good name and the wrecking of her home. However, the family honor and happiness are saved and the girl wins confirmed wealthy bachelor to boot.

Norma Shearer is starring as the girl, Katherine Emerson. She is a remarkable actress as well as being an unusually attractive and beautiful girl and gives a brilliant performance in this newest role.

Lew Cody is feautured as Nicholas Wentworth and makes an ideal romantic lover. As usual he gives a strong performance for there is no more dependable player on the screen than Mr. Cody.

Mary Carr, William Haines, Vivia Ogden, Miss Dupont and James Corrigan all give splendid performances.

Bess Meredyth wrote the continuity and Ben Reynolds did the photography.

An elaboratoly built bungalow on wheels, and an entire caravan of typical tourists was part of the cast of "California Straight Ahead," the Universal-Jewel picture starring Reginald Denny, which comes to the Sequoia Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, October 5 and 6.

Most of the picture takes place out on the open road, with Denny in the role of a disconsolate suitor trying to forget the fact that his financee had changed her mind. He tours the country in the palatial honeymoon trailer he had built with which to take his bride to California.

Lightning and Campers

A study of lightning fatalities, says E. F. Creighton of the General Electric company leads the scientists to believe that picnickers and soldiers are more often the victims of lightning than other people. Why is this? Fires at noon, he explains, cause an upward current of air which becomes charged and the charge is emptied immediately in the vicinity from where it originated. "The next time you go on a camping trip," he says, "just throw a few wires across the trees above your fire and all will be safe.
